

Immerse Yourself in DeafBlind Culture

Experience the variety of DeafBlind communication modes, share cultural information & understand how similar we all are!

Culture Encounters of the DeafBlind Kind

DBCAN-NJ
DeafBlind Community Access Network of New Jersey, Inc.

Culture Encounters of the DeafBlind Kind

a social, structured activity consisting of small-group discussions led by DeafBlind people

Target Audiences

- Interpreters, SSPs, interveners, case managers & other professionals interested in honing their DeafBlind communications skills, including ASL, TASL, spoken language and tactile forms of communication, and/or expanding their understanding of DeafBlind culture.
- Ice breaker activity for DeafBlind people meeting each other for the first time, perhaps at camps, conferences, workshops or socials.
- Family, friends and all others interested in learning more about the DeafBlind world.